New Ball Diamond Is Likely

Prospects of a brand new Farm League ball diamond look very bright, according to a spokesman of the Benton City Park Commission. A major factor leading to the necessity of another field is the rapid growth of Farm League from two teams with 34 players in 1959 to four teams with 91 players this current season. At this rate of increase 120 players can be contemplated in 1962.

Plans for the field and playing area will be tailored to size for the 7-8-9 year youngsters and the only one of its design in the entire state.

The Little League diamond now is used to capacity with double headers each night except Wednesday and Sundays and it cannot accommodate another team or night game. The big diamond layout out for the larger boys is under the Pony League, American Legion and Twin Stars.

On Tuesday, June 13, the Sox beat the Tigers 4 to 3. The Sox got three hits. Cothron was the winning pitcher, and Ham was the loser.

On Thursday, June 15, the Braves defeated the Pirates 37 to 1 (that's right). Barry Faith pitched for the Braves, and Ivey was on the mound for the Pirates. The Braves went on a batting spree in the 4th inning, and pounded out 22 runs.

On Saturday, June 17, the Pirates and the Sox played a six-inning tie, and the Braves-Tiger game was not completed.

County School Bus Stripped, Burned

A Marshall County school bus, stolen recently from the Hardin School grounds, has been found burned and stripped of its engine and battery.

The bus was found last Thursday, June 15, on a lateral road about a mile from Ky. 408 and the WCBL radio station.

John Hicks, principal of the Hardin School, reported to County Supt. Holland Rose that he noticed the bus missing on June 6 but thought that the driver or someone else was using the vehicle.

When the bus was not returned, a search was started and it was found on June 15.

Supt. Rose says there are no clues to the theft and burning, and would appreciate persons who might have some clues to report to him.

$74,809 Paid Farmers For Conservation Work

Renlee Rudolph, chairman of the Marshall County ASC Committee, has released figures for the 1960 Conservation practices for the ASC in the County, showing an increase in participation over 1959.

Total farms participating in the ACP cost-share program in 1959 was 281; total participating in 1960 was 356, or an increase of 75 farms over 1959. Total farmland on farms participating in 1959 was 29,053 acres. Total farmland on 1960 participating farms was 32,050 acres.

In 1960, 245 farmers seeded 2,448 acres to grass-legume cover, 14 farms improved 200 acres of established grass-legume cover by re-liming, re-fertilizing and seeding additional grasses and legumes; 32 farms dug wells for livestock water; 25 farms dug 26 ponds for livestock water; 25 farms installed pipelines to furnish stockwater from already existing sources of water; two farms built 187,000 sq. ft. of sod waterway; 22 farms established 179,000 sq. ft. of cover on pond banks and dams; nine farms constructed open drainage ditch to drain 415 acres; and 36 farms seeded 278 acres of winter cover crop.

Total gross assistance for conservation practices in 1960 was $74,809.

However, the increase in participating farms was only 5 percent of total farms in the county, with only 21 percent participating in 1960. The State ASC Committee and the county committee are anxious to increase the number of farms that carry out conservation practices in 1961.

To date 212 requests for cost-share practices, totaling $23,261.51, have been filed in the county office by farmers desiring to carry out conservation practices.

Chairman Rudolph stated that there is plenty of time to carry out many needed practices before the end of the year and it is hoped that farmers will consider their conservation problems and file application for needed practices as early as possible so that practices may be completed on time.

Methodist Church.

The Rev. C. H. Lynn of Memphis, Tenn., performed the ceremony with the couple exchanging vows beneath an archway entwined with greenery and white carnations. The chancel was decorated with greenery and white gladioli, flanked on either side with candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a Sabrina neckline and sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt ended in a chapel-length train. Her matching headband, ornamented with pearls and sequins, held the chapel-length veil.

The bride's only jewelry was a gold locket belonging to the groom's mother. She carried a white Bible on which was placed a purple-throated orchid.

David Owens, brother of the groom, served as best man.

The ushers were Jimmy Owens, cousin of the groom, and Henry white accessories and wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens will reside in San Francisco, where Mr. Owens is stationed at Moffett Field.

Mrs. Owens was honored with a household shower Saturday evening at Oakland Methodist Church.

Hostesses were Mrs. Wilma

END YOUR CONSTIPATION WORRIES

How Use Of Water May
As you grow older, your system begins to dry out. This is true of your digestive system, and it may lead to constipation. SERUTAN, taken daily with plenty of water, produces a smooth gel that provides the proper moisture, bulk and peristaltic stimulation to help end your constipation worries.

SERUTAN is the all-vegetable laxative aid that moistens hard, dry food wastes and forms it for easy, regular elimination. SERUTAN is entirely different from harsh chemical pills, salts, bran or oils. Take SERUTAN daily with water and enjoy regular elimination or your money back.

ONLY SAPS STAND FOR 'LOVE TAPS'

Dear Amy:
My husband has so many good qualities. He never forgets a birthday or anniversary. I always receive cards for Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, Easter, etc. He works hard and makes a living but I never get any money to call my own. This I can live with but the real problem is that when I don't do exactly as my husband says, he gets rough. He has never really hurt me, but then I don't bruise easily. He says when he hits me that they are only 'love taps'. His 'love taps' are getting harder to take.

What can I do about this? I have tried to act like it doesn't bother me. That's when he does it more.

Janice

Dear Janice:
The only thing lower than a man who would hit a woman is a woman who would put up with it. If you've been taking this rough treatment and are just getting around to asking for advice, there's something wrong with you as well as with him.

Before these 'love taps' land you in a hospital room overflowing with your husband's 'good qualities', find a psychiatrist with twin couches!

Dear Amy:
My sister and I are both in our late 30's. Do you think we are old enough to do what we want to? We have a sister and brother who live nearby and they are always telling us what to do and where to go. They don't want us to have dates with men at all and they watch our house all the time.

My sister and I want to move from this town. Would you advise us to go or should we stay here and let them live our lives. Our parents have passed on and we would be happy to sell the home they left us and go somewhere else.

M.C.

Dear M.C.:
You have long since passed the age for baby sitters. It's time to live a little... but not there. Sell!

Dear Amy:
I have been going with Bob for three years now. He's 21 and I'm 19. Bob's brother, whom I have not yet met, is getting married.

Bob is best man. As for meeting the rest of his family, I met his parents once and his sister many times.

I know the best man is required to stay with the maid of honor (she's going with a fellow in the Navy). A party was given for the two families to meet. Bob hadn't invited me to do so because the maid of honor had brought her boyfriend.

From the above, would you please answer my question. Would it be wrong or right for me to be invited to the wedding not knowing the bride or groom, or is it Bob's place to invite me?

Miss J.S.

Dear Miss J.S.:
The bride and groom (knowing that you are Bob's girl) should extend you an invitation. If for some reason they overlook it, Bob should suggest that they do so.

Dear Amy:
My classmates and I had an argument with our English teacher. When someone sneezes, we say "God Bless you." The teacher said that it was a superstition and that you were not brought up right. What do you think?

English Student

Dear Student:
I think your teacher should confine his teachings to English and leave his lectures on Philosophy and Religion to one who is better qualified. "God Bless you" is a universal expression used by intelligent people the world over. You were brought up right. What I'm wondering is... was he?

PERSONAL to "Blue Girl":
Tell your drama coach of the financial setback. If you're as good an actress as she says, she might be willing to continue your lessons until you can repay her. P.S. Even though you look like Elizabeth Taylor, don't mimic her. A budding actress needs an identity of her own.
